

S. Lorrie Ray, Esq., SPHR, SHRM-SCP

Director, Member Engagement Department, Employers Council

EDUCATION:

Bachelor of Science (Finance) - University of Colorado

Law degree - University of Denver.

WORK HISTORY:

Lorrie's experience in the variety of problems typically facing employers includes resolution of civil rights cases before state and federal administrative agencies, federal wage and hour disputes and state law claims, employment discrimination, wrongful discharge and health and safety laws. She is also a frequent lecturer on employment law matters.

Previous to working at Employers Council, Lorrie worked at the U.S. Department of Labor Office of the Solicitor for a little over three years, prosecuting wage and hour cases for the Department.

SPECIAL ASSOCIATIONS:

Member of the Colorado and Federal Bar

Bicycling, hiking, snowshoeing, and reading

D: 303.223.5380 / C: 303.941.7756 / LRay@EmployersCouncil.org